

Recital for Future Stars Event - Live Stream Link and MORE!

Heading to the Lied Center!

It's time to celebrate our Miller Marley dancers as our Recital for Future Stars is just days ahead! With our last day of classes for the Spring Session on Thursday, May 23rd, all additional rehearsals, and performances will take us to the Lied Center in Lawrence, KS.

On-Stage Spacing Rehearsal at the Lied Center

As families enter the Lied Center with their dancer(s) for their spacing rehearsal window, take the stairs that go down towards the BIG "Staging" Room. Dancers can then change into their dancing shoes and sit with their class. Parents will need to take their dancer's personal belongings, dance bag, water bottle etc. and go into the theatre until their student rehearsal is over. Pick-up will be back at the staging room. Waiting to pick up your dancer one or two numbers following their on-stage rehearsal time will allow them time to return to the Staging Room from the stage area.

Reminder: Dancers will wear their regular class attire to this rehearsal. Select students have been chosen to wear their recital costume for this on-stage rehearsal for lighting purposes.

If you are needing Spacing Rehearsal Schedules for Saturday and Sunday, they are posted on our Miller Marley website, www.millermarley.com or click on the links below:

Wristbands

For our Saturday performance, one parent or responsible adult will need to have a wristband as they check-in their dancer at the Check-in Table, and at the door of the Staging Room before they are released.

Wristbands can be replaced at the on-stage spacing rehearsal on Saturday morning or at the check-in table if they have been lost or misplaced.
