Miller Marley Youth Ballet presents

CLARA'S DREAM

and A Holiday Musical Revue

The Lied Center of Kansas
December 20, 6:00 pm & Sunday, December 21, 2:00 pm

This year Miller Marley celebrates its twenty-first year anniversary of Clara's Dream and Miller Marley's 63rd year in business.

Since 2005, when Clara's Dream first appeared on the Miller Marley stage, this ballet has become an enduring favorite and a treasured holiday tradition. The production features the artistic talents of the Miller Marley Youth Ballet, Youth Ballet 2, and a talented cast of guest performers. This traditional story has been adapted and choreographed by Matthew Donnell with additional staging and choreography by our Artistic Director, Laura Branson, including exquisite costumes of original designs, by Tia Browning and Elaine Beckman Lynch. This version of the classical Nutcracker follows Clara on a magical journey beginning with a glorious celebration on Christmas Eve, through the Land of Snow and Kingdom of the Sweets.

As is the custom, our wonderful performing companies will kick off this holiday celebration with a variety of performances in Act One – A Holiday Musical Revue. We will open Act One with our Musical Theatre production “The Polar Express” featuring special guest artist Chris Halford as “The Conductor.” Act One will close with Miller Marley’s combined competitive dance teams’ original concept of what’s it’s like to stay “On the Move.”

As we embark upon our twenty-first season of Clara's Dream we hope to continue this holiday tradition and perhaps start some new ones for you and your family. We appreciate all of our hard-working and dedicated families who join us each year for this exciting holiday tradition. Here's to a Happy Holiday season and a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Enjoy the show!
Happy Holidays!

What makes our vision for the Party Scene unique!

Traditionally, as the story of Clara's Dream begins, it is Christmas Eve and Clara's parents, the Stahlbaums, are hosting a huge gala to celebrate the season. All eyes are immediately drawn to the party guests, who have donned their finest Victorian attire for the occasion.

When the curtain rises, the party scene will take on an international flair. The party guests will be foreign ambassadors and their families, all clad in costumes appropriate to their countries of origin. Mr. Stahlbaum, Clara's father, is the Ambassador of England and his distinguished guests will represent the countries of Spain, Arabia, China, Russia, Sweden and Germany.

Our beloved Elaine Beckman Lynch (Elaine Biggs), MMYB's original costume designer, created the impressive array of international costumes for this production. To ensure their historical accuracy, Elaine thoroughly researched the cultural and design elements particular to each piece and then searched for complementary fabric. Her painstaking efforts to include each and every detail and embellishment produced an awe-inspiring collection not often seen in productions of the Nutcracker.

The Miller Marley Youth Ballet Company feels so fortunate to have had a designer of Elaine's expertise at the helm. Elaine's talents and friendship will be missed by many.

Program Notes by Matthew Donnell

It was Christmas Eve at the Stahlbaum's house and Clara's family had thrown the most wonderful party for foreign ambassadors and their families. As Clara slept, her magical Godfather, Herr Drosselmeyer, cast a spell over her that guaranteed that this would be a night she would never forget. As she drifted deeper and deeper into dreamy sleep, she relived the glorious evening and embarked on a wondrous journey led by the mysterious inventor, Herr Drosselmeyer.

Drosselmeyer had a magical way of making life size mechanical dolls come to life. At the party he presented Clara with an unusual Nutcracker doll, which made her feel very special. Then, Drosselmeyer presented the Stahlbaums and all the guests with a Harlequin and Columbine who flirted and teased each other to the delight of the children. A powerful mechanical soldier followed exciting Clara's brother, Fritz, and his friends.

As this memory faded from Clara's dream, she felt as if she were floating and perhaps even flying with Drosselmeyer through an enchanted forest where snowflakes came to life, as if they had lives of their own. A glorious Snow King and Queen danced in honor of Clara. The Snow Queen welcomed Clara by presenting her with her first pair of pointe shoes and then the graceful couple led her and her Godfather into the Kingdom of the Sweets.

Herr Drosselmeyer escorted Clara to a faraway Kingdom that was so colorful and beautiful. There, Angels and the Sugar Plum Fairy greeted her. Herr Drosselmeyer seemed to know them and respect them for he bowed to them presenting his precious Goddaughter most humbly.

The Sugar Plum Fairy sat them at a seat of honor and commanded a performance commence for their guests. The court was made up of people from all over the world, and Clara was overwhelmed as they danced for her. There were people from Spain, Arabia, China, Russia, Sweden and Germany. But the thing that delighted her most occurred when she danced in celebration with children that were made of gingerbread. After all of this revelry, a beautiful waltz commenced, with women so lovely Clara believed them to be flowers. Were her eyes playing tricks on her? Truly this was an enchanted place! Just when Clara thought she had seen it all, the Cavalier took the floor and amazed her with his power. Then the Sugar Plum Fairy danced gracefully with her handsome Cavalier.

Suddenly, the music swelled, and the room was filled with everyone whom she had encountered that night. They danced and twirled so much that Clara felt her head growing light. It had been the most exciting adventure of her life! As the people swirled around her, she felt herself returning to her dream. Everything was a blur except for Drosselmeyer, and then...

Where was she? She looked around her. She was lying on her sofa. She was alone, and in her arms was her beloved Nutcracker. Had it all been a dream? As she pondered the strange dream, she couldn't help but sense that she was not alone. Unbeknownst to her she was right, for in the shadows was her loving Godfather, Drosselmeyer. He had a mysterious look on his face that seemed to say no matter what adventures Clara encountered in her life - she would always be safe.
