Act One

Recital for Little Stars

Featuring Our Dance for Tiny 2's through Kindergarten Classes and selections from our Miller Marley Performing Companies

Welcome to Miller Marley's Spring Dance Fest Trio concert. Many stars have been born at Miller Marley. Since its opening in 1963, the school has been the launching pad for the careers of over 100 alumni who have gone on to successful stage and film careers, out of which over 50 have appeared in over 120 Broadway shows. Once upon a time these people were our "Little Stars" and former "Little Stars" are currently appearing on Broadway, National Tours and in theatres on both coasts as well as internationally.

From their first pair of tap shoes and forever, Miller Marley will continue to cherish the memories of all its "Little Stars"
both past and present.

So, here's to the cast of Miller Marley's Recital for Little Stars:
*"You are the stars, the moon, and the center of our universe.
To see you grow and prosper has been a dream come true."*

To our Miller Marley families:

*“Your love and support allows us to soar to greater heights.
Your beautiful “stars” are a direct reflection of their wonderful parents.”*

To our Miller Marley Performance Companies:

*“Your presence is an inspiration to all the “Little Stars” that gaze at you in awe and aspire to dance just like you.
Thank you for your loyalty and dedication.”*

And, to our “Littlest Stars”:

*“Right now, you are just a twinkle,
but one day you could be a SUPERSTAR!”*

*Setting others up for success is the greatest gift we can give as well as receive.
~ Shirley Marley & Brian McGinness*

Act Two

The Sleeping Beauty Ballet

Presented by Miller Marley Youth Ballet and Youth Ballet 2

Welcome to Miller Marley's Spring Dance Fest Trio concert featuring The Sleeping Beauty Ballet, presented by the Miller Marley Youth Ballet and the Youth Ballet 2.

The Miller Marley Youth Ballet Company has a repertory of seven classic children's story ballets that date back to the first production of Peter and the Wolf in 2007, all choreographed by our talented Artistic Director Laura Branson. Miller Marley School Director and Company Coordinator Brian McGinness stated, "That first production of a children's ballet was so well received it inspired us to create a repertoire of six additional ballets consisting of Cinderella (2008), Alice in Wonderland (2009), Snow White (2010), Sleeping Beauty (2011), Peter Pan (2012) and The Little Mermaid (2013)."

Tia Browning, Costume Designer, has completed The Sleeping Beauty wardrobe originally designed and created by Elaine (Biggs) Beckman Lynch. The fruits of their labor are absolutely breathtaking.

Congratulations to Laura Branson, MMYB Artistic Director and choreographer of The Sleeping Beauty and Ashley Moelenhoff, YB2 Artistic Director. Your teaching, choreography and expertise have propelled our young dancers to the greatest heights. Thank you for your talents and dedication. To the members of our ballet companies: Once again you have outdone yourselves. Whether you are near to us, or far away, we will always celebrate your triumphs and will forever hold a special place for you in our hearts.

Enjoy the show!

Shirley Marley, Brian McGinness and the Miller Marley Staff

Program Notes

Once upon a time, in a magical Fairy Kingdom, a princess, named Aurora, was born to King Florestan XXIV and his Queen. A huge celebration was held to christen the baby's birth. The Lilac Fairy (Fairy of Wisdom), accompanied by her fairy maidens, attends the party. Fairies are embodied with the traits of wisdom, beauty, temperament, purity, joy, wit and generosity. Each fairy in turn bestows her special gift to Aurora, which ensures that the princess will forever be blessed with a beautiful spirit.

Insulted that she was not invited to the party, the wicked fairy, Carabosse, comes to the christening as a party guest and casts a spell over Princess Aurora. The spell dictates that on her sixteenth birthday, Princess Aurora will prick her finger and die. The Lilac Fairy uses her powers to alter the curse so that Aurora will prick her finger but will not die. Instead, the princess is destined to sleep for 100 years until awakened by the kiss of a prince.

Sixteen years later, the royal family hosts a party to celebrate Aurora's sixteenth birthday during which the princess receives gifts of roses from her four royal suitors. Carabosse presents Aurora with a bouquet of roses. While admiring the flowers, Aurora inadvertently pricks her finger on a thorn and as promised, falls asleep. Satisfied that her work has been done, Carabosse vanishes from the castle. Once again, the Lilac Fairy appears and casts a spell of slumber over the royal family so that they too will sleep for 100 years until Aurora is awakened.

One hundred years later, a prince by the name of Desire, wanders alone in a dark forest. Upon discovering the prince, the Lilac Fairy tells him of Aurora's plight. Filled with love and compassion for the ill-fated princess, Prince Desire springs into action and implores the Lilac Fairy to lead him to her. During their journey, the pair is intercepted by the evil Carabosse, and a battle ensues. Prince Desire arises victorious, defeats the wicked fairy and hastens to the castle where he finds the sleeping princess. He kisses her and she awakens, along with her entire family. The prince professes his undying love for Princess Aurora and the happy couple prepare to be wed.

The wedding of Prince Desire and Princess Aurora is a gala affair. It is attended by the royal family as well as all the Fairies. The fairy tale characters, Puss in Boots and the White Cat and Little Red Riding Hood and the Wolf, also are honored guests. And, in the end, with great rejoicing, Prince Desire and Princess Aurora seal their love with a kiss and live happily ever after.
